

PENNSYLVANIA NATIONAL HORSE SHOW FOUNDATION

The Pennsylvania National Horse Show Foundation was established in 1999, as a tax-exempt non-profit – 501(c)(3) – organization for the purpose of supporting projects and programs which focus on the education and training of persons in equestrian endeavors. Examples include: support for therapeutic riding programs; the education of the public to the fun, excitement and grandeur of equestrian endeavors; research into safe riding and practices. Applications for grants are accepted throughout the year with action upon requests awarded in September.
